

Internet/Computer Policy

Salisbury Adventist School “SAS”

1. SAS Net is to be used to provide educational experiences and access to material for research purposes.
2. Users must respect the rights of others when using SAS Net. The administrator of SAS Net and the school principal have the right to place any restrictions on the use and the content of material on SAS Net.
3. SAS Net must be used in a responsible, ethical, moral, and legal manner that supports the philosophy and goals of Salisbury Adventist School and the Seventh-day Adventist denomination.
4. Any misuse of SAS Net can result in immediate limitation of right to use, cancellation of right to use and other disciplinary action deemed appropriate by the administration of Salisbury Adventist School and/or the school board.
5. No disk or CD may be placed into the computers of the school that is not the property of the school, without specific direct consent of the system administrator . No changes to the system setup (this includes screen, font, and resolution) or network can be made to the computers.
6. No computer program may be loaded onto the schools computers that the school does not own a license to use. No one but the system administrator may download any files to the hard drives. Trial versions/demos may be loaded if the conditions of the trial use are adhered to, with permission in compliance with #5 above.
7. Any attempts to bypass any restrictions or safeguards placed on SAS Net will be met with disciplinary action. Parents will be responsible for any damage or harm as the result of intentional violations of this policy or misuse of SAS Net.

8. While Salisbury Adventist School will do all it can to ensure a safe and positive computer experience, because of the unregulated nature of the internet it can make no guarantee that the system will be error free or without defect and is not responsible for the accuracy or appropriateness of any information obtained through its use. SAS cannot be responsible for the inadvertent accessing of inappropriate material, or that which is accessed in violation of its policies.
9. The type of access and rights one has on SAS Net will be determined by a combination of grade level and the ability to pass a competency test on Internet usage and safety, general computer literacy and the policies of SAS Net.
10. For a child to use SAS Net, the parent and student both, must sign this form showing they have read, understand, and agree to abide by the policies of SAS Net. Parents and students must fill out a permission statement at the time of registration.. Other users (Teachers, Staff, Visitors) of SAS Net will also be required to sign this for that they will agree to abide by the policies of SAS Net.

I have read the above policy of SAS Net and am willing to abide by the regulations set forth. And I understand that this policy may be amended as needed.
