THE SALISBURY ADVENTIST SCHOOL NEWSLETTER

Salisbury Adventist School is a holistic, Jesus-centered school serving students in grades 1-8

STUDENT OF THE WEEK

A NOTE FROM DR. STEIN

Isn't the chilly weather lovely? Everything is pumpkin spiced and we are so excited for Thanksgiving! We are starting to learn our parts for the Christmas play, and are looking forward to this fun event. You won't want to miss it! We will be creatively re-telling the Nativity story, and hopefully leading people to a God-experience they won't forget!

We were sad to lose our 5-8 para-professional, Ms. Destiny, this week. Our hearts miss her without her around! But we wish all of the best, as she focuses more of her efforts on her schoolwork and less on grading papers! Good-bye, Ms. Destiny ♥ * !

We are in need of a few extra grading helpers at SAS! Do any of you have an hour or two in the mornings or afternoons that you might like to spend volunteering to grade some writing and Social Studies assignments? Any help would be much appreciated!

Projects this week for lower graders were about food customs of other countries. We were blessed enough to even have a few students who came with samples of the foods! We got to try foods from Australia, the Dominican Republic, China, Italy, Mexico, and more! Upper graders studied Spártā, Ancient Greece, and the daily customs of the times.

Fall Picnic Fun!!

Odds and Ends

Our Fall Picnic was a hit! The kids and adult really had a wonderful time playing games, jumping in the bounce house, getting their faces painted, eating smores and haystacks, and just enjoying each other's company. We can't wait for next year!

Our next home and school meeting will be this Sunday, Oct. 29, at 3PM. Please plan on attending this meeting if you would like to be involved in the school.

Keep helping us reach our fundraising goals with by purchasing/selling fun pasta, and collecting gently used/new shoes! We are doing ok but we could be doing so much better and it takes as much help as we can get, so please help out if you can. Our pasta runs until the beginning of December and our shoe drive runs until the end of Nov.
