Salisbury Adventist School is a holistic, Jesus-centered school serving students in grades 1-8

A NOTE FROM DR. STEIN

What a great week it's been! This week all of the participating students "leveled up" in their ski skills! The first graders were able to conquer the 'blue square' hills (the intermediate slopes), the majority of the advanced group were able to learn parallel stops and had fewer falls, beginners conquered the chair lift, and the cautionary skiers were able to begin to enjoy the bunny hill and learn some skiing games, like follow-the-leader. Our third quarter ski trips are now more than half over, with only three more remaining. What a blessing it has been to increase our skiing skills over the course of this quarter. What fun PE can be!

Our Bible skills are also strengthening. Each week we are studying a chapter of the Bible in depth, and doing a Jeopardy-style competition on spiritual insight in these studies. The discussions in the car about the chapter and the audio versions that we hear both contribute to a new light coming straight from God's word. Thank-you, Lord, for the Bible!

We had two shadow students this week, Aleeya and Alan. What fun it was to make two new friends and be able to enlarge our family for the day. Our hope is that they may join our school family in the future, but only God knows what is best. Keep our school in your prayers as we continue to grow and learn together.

Due to a lack of interest in our Valentine's Day Banquet this year, we have decided to cancel this event. This decision was not an easy one, but it was prayerfully considered and we feel like it is what is best. A HUGE "Thank you" to those who were willing to help/donate/support. I know life gets busy but we couldn't do it without the support.

Our next BIG fundraiser will be in the spring. It is going to be a rummage/bake sale. More info will be coming in the very near future. If you have some items you would like to donate to sell, please see Mrs. Kellie.

Don't forget, our next home and school meeting is on Feb. 25 at 3PM.
