A NOTE FROM DR. STEIN

Hurricane weather again?! This year has certainly been one for natural disasters! Meanwhile, at school we have been enjoying the rain and working hard on our academic pursuits. There's something lovely about knowing you're not missing much outside, weather-wise. Thursday we had yet another inclement weather day because of these tropical storms! We are praying for all of those effected, that they can be safe during the difficulties that arise from Hurricane Michael.

This week has been spectacular because of our dear friends, the Herberts! They came from the Asheville area to share a wonderful presentation. They are retired teachers (they used to teach at our school!), and they presented a program they've entitled 'Designer Science.' This wonderful program tells the story of The Great Controversy and uses scientific object lessons to teach the kids. For example, one day they had a system of pulleys set up. They had Jordan, a Kindergartener, match up for a tug-of-war match against Ariella, a fifth grader. Who do you think won? They illustrated the point that humans can conquer the powerful evil forces if they have God's help. Trying to win alone, simply doesn't work.

What a wonderful chance to get deeper into God's message of redemption! It is my hope that we all keep our eyes focused on what is really important: the second coming of Christ! His return will be soon, perhaps this very day! Our prayer at SAS is that he will find us waiting, and working to fulfill our commission! We want the good news of the Kingdom of Heaven to be preached to all of the world! Because we know that THEN the end will come!

Home and School

The time has come! Our Rummage Sale/Fall Festival is THIS SUNDAY at 11:00am! Please come out and see what kind of goodies you can find! Spread the word! We will also be having the Fall Festival for the kids. There will be a hayride, bounce house, corn hole, a Lego Derby, and there will smores and hot chocolate for sale. See you there!

We will be beginning our popcorn sales shortly. More information on that will be coming soon. Keep your eyes open!

Please collect those Box Tops for Education! They really are a good fundraiser for the school. You can find them almost anywhere. Be on the lookout and turn them into Mrs. Kellie in the school office. Thank you!
